

Celebrating the past. Moving into the future.

August 2025

Dear Spectrum Fans,

This fall marks a milestone in the musical life of Fort Worth: Spectrum Chamber Music Society's 40th Anniversary Season! For four decades, we've brought together musicians from the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra and friends to share chamber music that's intimate, adventurous, and deeply connected to our community.

That work happens because of the generosity of people who believe in what Spectrum brings to Fort Worth.

This season, in addition to presenting our traditional chamber music concerts, we'll bookend our 40th with two landmark events: a captivating movie music concert and Miguel Harth-Bedoya's critically acclaimed Caminos del Inka program. Along the way, audiences can look forward to preview performances at Steinway Hall, collaborations with LVT Rise and the Center for Transforming Lives, and a spooky Halloween multimedia event at the Fort Worth Museum of Science and History's Jane & John Justin Foundation Omni Theater.

As we celebrate this landmark year, I'm inviting friends of Spectrum to consider becoming sponsors — either for the full season or for individual concerts. On the following pages, you'll find details about our various projects, sponsorship levels, recognition, and ways to give.

Thank you for helping us make this anniversary season a reality.

With gratitude,
